

TA+ Neo literates celebrated the International Day of Persons with Disabilities

Micro Legal Literacy Camp was organised on the occasion of “The International Day of Persons with Disabilities” in Village Madwari, Jakhaura block in Lalitpur district, Uttar Pradesh on 3 December 2019. The event was attended by Arun Raj Khare, Sub Divisional Magistrate, Lalitpur. Other attendees of the event included Pankaj Kumar, Child Protection Officer, Lalitpur, and Prabha Verma, Head Mistress, Primary School, Madwari. 200 Tara Akshar+ Neo-literates also attended the event.

The speakers highlighted the importance of acceptance of disability and the need to support the rights of disabled persons. They also briefed about the prevention of disabilities and rehabilitation opportunities. The speakers urged the audience to respect people with disabilities in every facet of political, financial, and socio-cultural life. At the end of the event, blankets were distributed to 20 disabled people including five TARA Akshar+ Neo literates on this occasion. The event was also covered in the leading regional newspapers.