

Creating alternative livelihood through traditional methods

Rural Self Employment Training Institute, Punjab National Bank, Lalitpur organised a training programme on cane and bamboo craft making in which TARA Akshar+ learners from Jakhaura Block, Uttar Pradesh participated. The training took place from 12th December to 27th December 2018. A total of 24 women have participated in this training and are learning new and innovative methods of designing crafts and products from cane and bamboo. By this, not only are they learning a new craft and trade, but also contributing to upholding the traditional forms of art and culture of their region.
