

Work 4 Progress (W4P) flagship event Jobs We Want organised in Delhi

Development Alternatives (DA) under its Work 4 Progress (W4P) programme of la Caixa Banking Foundation, organised its flagship event Jobs We Want 2019 on 26th September, 2019. W4P accelerates the creation of decent work opportunities in three developing countries – India, Mozambique and Peru. In India, W4P aims to create sustainable livelihoods for youth and women through enterprise development solutions in backward regions of Bundelkhand and Eastern Uttar Pradesh.

The event builds upon experiences and insights gained in the W4P programme, to explore pathways for unleashing entrepreneurship and creating jobs at scale. Earlier in the day at the Development Alternatives World Headquarters, over 200 practitioners, sectoral experts and policymakers explored avenues for accelerated impact in the areas of entrepreneurship and employment through four technical sessions on – Women Entrepreneurship; Unlocking Finance; Platforms for Learning and Collaboration for Ecosystem building.

The evening part of the event was attended by more than 250 people and featured an address by H.R.H. the Infanta Cristina of Spain, Director - International Area, la Caixa and Dr Ashok Khosla, Chairman, Development Alternatives, followed by a discussion on 'Systems Change for Entrepreneurship led Job Creation', and a talk Dr Ashok Khosla, Chairman, Development Alternatives, and other dignitaries.
