

Dairy Farming Training for TARA Akshar+ graduates by RSETI Bhadohi

Dairy farming training by Rural Self Employment Training Institute Bhadohi was organised in Aurai Block of Bhadohi District from 20th to 29th June, 2019, for TARA Akshar+ neo literates. Women were trained in good dairy farming practices and how to better take care of their cattle.

After the training, women showed great enthusiasm to look after their livestock and also adopting methods to increase milk production, which will add on to their monthly income.

A graduation ceremony, to honor the TA+ neo-literates who participated in the training, was organised on June 29. A total of 35 women were awarded with certificates by Umesh Kumar, Lead District Manager, Union Bank of India, Bhadohi.
